

WHMIS QUIZ

A score of 70% or better is required to successfully complete your WHMIS training.

1. Which word correctly completes the phrase: Workplace Hazardous Materials?
_____ System?

- Inventory.
- Information.
- In-house.

2. Where can you get further information regarding the hazardous material?

- Transport of Dangerous Goods papers.
- Ask your Regional Safety Officer.
- Material Safety Data Sheet/Safety Data Sheets.

3. WHMIS Regulations apply mainly to the:

- Trucks and trains transporting hazardous materials.
- Stores where hazardous materials are sold to the public.
- Workplace where hazardous materials are used.

4. The purpose of a WHMIS label is to:

- Tell consumers how many items are in the box.
- Alert workers to important safety information and potential hazards.
- Help Revenue Canada track the employer's profits.

5. The MSDS/SDS for a hazardous material must be:

- Readily available to anyone using the hazardous Material
- Supplied by the purchaser of the hazardous material.
- Routinely updated every year.

6. The MSDS/SDS does NOT need to include:

- Information about first aid and firefighting procedures.
- The name of the shipping company or deliverer.
- The name of the supplier or manufacture.

7. The main responsibility for classifying products is up to the:

- Ministry of Consumer and Corporate Affairs.
- Supplier.
- Worker.

8. Workplace labels on containers for on-site use:

- Must include a list of hazardous ingredients.
- Must include a product identifier and precautionary statements.
- Are unnecessary, if the container is WHMIS approved.

9. Personal protective equipment (PPE) that is recommended on a MSDS:

- Does not have to be maintained.
- Must be available and used by employees when required.
- Does not have to be available on the unit.

10. Supplier labels must be written in:

- English.
- French.
- Both English and French.
- None of the above.

TRUE OR FALSE:

1. The ultimate goal of WHMIS is to reduce injuries and illnesses associated with chemical exposures in the workplace.

True.

2. In the workplace, I don't need to understand WHMIS.

False.

3. Suppliers are not responsible for providing a MSDS.

False.

ZECRUIT STAFFING

SYMBOLS

1. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to which of the following classes:

- Flammable material.
- Oxidizing material.
- Biohazardous infectious material.

2. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to:

- Biohazardous Infectious Material.
- Oxidizing Material.
- Corrosive Material.

3. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to:

- Flammable material.
- Products that cause chronic health effects and with targeted health effects.
- Materials causing other toxic effects.

4. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to:

- Oxidizing material.
- Gases under pressure.
- Products with chronic health effects.

5. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to:

- Biohazardous infectious material.
- Self-reactive substances and mixtures.
- Corrosive material.

6. This WHMIS hazard symbol corresponds to:

- Biohazardous infectious material.
- Skull and Cross Bone.
- Flammable material.